CLASS HISTORY

OFFICERS

1st ROW: Jan Osterberg, vice-president; Candy Anderson, secretary; Laura-jean Peabody, treasurer; Fred Brawn, president; 2nd ROW: Advisors: Mrs. Hewes, Mr. Steensta, Mrs. White.

In the fall of 1967, ninety-four anxious and determined students entered the Freshman Class of Foxcroft Academy. We elected the following class officers: Bill Brown, president; Kerry Jo Carter, vice-president; Candy Anderson, secretary; and Julie Ambrose, treasurer. Linda Mitchell, Robin Vulner, and Peggy Blanchard were chosen as Student Council representatives. Several members of the class participated in sports, band, chorus, majorettes, and dance band. That year our football team won the State Class C Championship. Although we were only freshmen, we had taken a big step -- one which none of us will forget.

Next came our sophomore year and by then we had become a little more adjusted to high school life. We elected as our class officers: Bill Brown, president; Fred Brawn, vice-president; Rachel Shepardson, secretary; and Robin Vulner, treasurer. Our homeroom representatives for Student Council were Linda Mitchell, Mike Sullivan, and Fred Brawn. Members of our class participated in each of the school's activities.

At the first class meeting of our junior year the following officers were elected: Bill Brown, president; Vikki Leavitt, vice-president; Candy Anderson, secretary; and Steve Bray, treasurer. Linda Mitchell served as secretary of Student Council along with Fred Brawn, Vikki Leavitt, and Mike Sullivan as the homeroom representatives. Ten members of the class participated in Junior Exhibition and Linda Mitchell took part in the Spears Speaking Contest. The Junior-Senior Prom had as its theme, "Love Is Blue". It was very successful and helped to make our junior year interesting and rewarding.

Finally, the great class of 1971 elected the following officers: Fred Brawn, president; Jan Osterberg, vice-president; Candy Anderson, secretary; and Laura-jean Peabody, treasurer. We were well represented in Student Council by Linda Mitchell, president; Scott Dyer, vice-president; and Fred Brawn, Debbie Hardy, and Alan Johnson, representatives. Our senior year was highlighted by our foreign exchange student, Jan Osterberg. Jan came from Sweden and was Foxcroft Academy's first boy exchange student. He was a delight to all of us throughout our last year and we wish him the best of luck when he returns to his homeland. The senior class also presented two one act plays. We have enjoyed the four most wonderful years of our lives and we are all proud to have been students here.

Candy Anderson,
Secretary

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Toni Saunders

This year F.A. was fortunate to have as our A.F.S. student Jan Osterberg from Sweden. Jan showed the students his friendliness and helped them understand a different way of life.

Toni Saunders spent the summer of 1970 in Switzerland. She brought many of her experiences back to F.A. to share with all the student body. We are sure that the experience of her summer there will always be remembered by her.
